Series	Christians Say the Darndest Things
Title	"I'm a Christian but I don't need to go to church"
Speaker	Will Douglas
Main Idea/Theme	In Acts 2 we have an historical account of the life of an early Christian church. Peter has just preached a wonderful come-to-Jesus sermon and scores of people have trusted Him as Savior and King. What is said next in verses 41-47 helps us see the folly in declaring "I'm a Christian, but I don't need to go to church." Here are the points: 1. If you stay away from God's people, you turn your back on teaching, 2. If you stay away from God's people, you turn your back on tradition 3. If you stay away from God's people, you turn your back on togetherness. Any song that encourages community and the oneness of the body or reminds us we are family.
