SERVICE INFO

Series	Hebrews: None Like the Son
Title	"High Priest: Position Filled"
Speaker	Will Douglas
Main Idea/Theme	As we pick up where we left off in verse 4, we'll see that the writer is not ready to move away the topic of the High Priest. We saw 2 weeks ago that this was a much needed position with very clear qualifications and duties, but only Jesus can fulfill them perfectly. So, the position is filled by Him alone. We will see precisely how this is so in the next verses of chapter 5 (v. 5-10). Jesus is the only true candidate for the position of the THE High Priest because <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. This High Priest is Uniquely Qualified2. This High Priest is One of Us (again, stress is on His humanity)3. This High Priest is King! Any song that brings out Jesus's humanity would be great, particularly as One who understands the suffering and pain of human beings or touches on His humanity in the incarnation would be good. Also, any songs that speak His Kingship would be great as well. It is not a subtle reality in this passage that the writer of Hebrews sees Jesus as not only THE High Priest but THE High King as well.
