Series	Hebrews: None Like the Son
Title	"Who Wears the Pants in This Family?"
Speaker	Will Douglas
Main Idea/Theme	In these opening verses in Hebrews 3, Jesus is presented as greater than Moses precisely because <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. He is the Builder not the building2. He is the Son not the servant But this argument for His greatness should lead us to recognize that this means He is charge. The words "house" and especially "household" are repeated a number of times in these 6 verses. This house/household is the people of God. The church is a house that houses Jesus's family. But we don't wear the pants in this family. He does. It should be sufficient to simply say as much, but we struggle sometimes to see the reality before our very eyes. Because God is patient with us He has supplied direct evidence of this truth. Any songs bring out Jesus's greater glory and honor would be excellent. Also, are there any songs that faithfully remind us that we are family? If so, they would be excellent as well!
