Series	Hebrews: None Like The Son
Title	"A Powerless Priesthood"
Speaker	Will Douglas
Main Idea/Theme	What if someone were to simply want to return or try to return to the Old Testament's Levitical Priesthood? The writer of Hebrews warns against such a pursuit. In this passage he points out why doing so is folly. We see (and here are my points): Under the Old Testament Priesthood ... <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Your Transformation Remains Unrealized2. Jesus's Priestly Work Remains Unavailable3. God Remains Unapproachable Only Jesus is the Priest powerful enough to bring us home to the presence of God. Any song that gets at this theme is good and right. Also, resurrection is hinted at in the passage. So, a song that gets us thinking in that direction is good as well. Finally, since communion is this Sunday a song or two that remind us our Great High Priest is also our Great Sacrifice would be excellent!
