Do you pledge before God and these assembled witnesses to keep watch over yourself and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you an overseer? Will you shepherd God's people and His purposes among this congregation and in this community? Will you watch your life and doctrine closely, persevering in them, ministering in a way that honors your King, Jesus, and that builds the Kingdom of God and the Church?
--Answering, "by God's grace, I will."
- Pledge from the Congregation
Do you accept this servant of God as your lead pastor, and do you promise to give him your prayerful and generous support for the promise of building a spiritual church in this place? If this is your promise, will you now give expression by standing?
